

TALKING POINTS GUIDE

Episode Nineteen: #MeToo, and You and You

I invite you to answer the following for yourself only or share them with friends and family.

Over two thousand years ago, when Jesus lived, women had no power within their homes, religion, or society. Fast forward 2,000 years and women still do not have equality. Describe what you imagine Jesus would say about the lack of gender equality within all aspects of modern society.

What are your thoughts about why there is continued resistance from many within religious and political power who desire to remain in control over women and girls?

Describe how the rampant abuse of power over and psychological mistreatment of one half of the world's population is a huge spiritual wake-up call.

Describe how it is logical and loving to question whether the religious message of God as male motivates many men to believe they are entitled to treat women as less than themselves. And women to believe themselves to be less than.
