

Talking Points Guide

To help start conversation with those you love.

Episode Twenty-One: What a Man Believes it Means to be a 21st Century Man

The Christian Church, all who identify as Christian, and those of us who are fans of how Christ asks us to live, have an opportunity to join forces and take the lead in changing our obsolete views of gender roles. We can clearly redefine masculinity and move away from the ideas that dominance over women, controlling a woman's reproduction, being tough physically, and being emotionally indifferent are manly.

If you are a woman, list the top 5 most important character values you want to see in all men and boys.

If you are a man, list the top 5 most important character values you want to see in all men and boys.

Describe 4-5 ways all men and boys need to make adjustments to their personal mindsets and perceptions about women and girls.

List 4-5 ways the entertainment industry can project images of gender equality.

Although men and women are different, as emotional, physical, intellectual, and spiritual beings we have many similar needs. List 10 needs that are the same.