

Talking Points Guide

Episode Twenty-four: Be Active in the Service of Positive Political Change

Answer the following for yourself only or share them with friends and family.

Plato is reported to have said, “One of the penalties for refusing to participate in politics is that you end up being governed by your inferiors.” Describe what this means.

To be “woke” means to be well-informed, in a political and cultural sense. Describe what you think the motivation might be of anyone, in any political party, who uses the term “woke” to cast a negative light on certain groups or policies.

In ancient Athens, contributing to politics and society in general was considered the norm and highly desirable. Describe how our society and government would improve if the majority of citizens were informed to the facts and demonstrated social responsibility and political awareness.

Describe how Jesus was “woke” in standing up for the greater good of the majority of citizens.